The Irondequoit Community Orchestra was founded in 2011 by J. Russel Thomas, a retired music educator in the Irondequoit Schools. The Orchestra, now conducted by Evan Meccarello, gives concerts throughout the Rochester area. A string orchestra at present, with future expansion to a full orchestra a possibility. We are always looking for new recruits! All are welcome to join us! Rehearsals Wednesday evenings (September-June, Dake Junior H.S. music room, 7:30-9:00pm). Planned concerts are (updates as they become available):

- Irondequoit Ecumenical Thanksgiving Event, Sunday, November 24, 3pm, Resurrection Lutheran Church, 3736 St. Paul Blvd., Rochester, NY
- Irondequoit Chorale Joint Concert “John Rutter’s Joy to the World” in memory of J. Russel Thomas, Sunday, December 15, 3pm, Christ the King Church, 445 Kings Highway S., Rochester, NY
- Irondequoit Public Library, June 2020, date TBD, 1290 Titus Ave., Rochester, NY
